

Pets To Go Boarding Policy & Release of Liability

The following letter states the policies of Pets To Go in regards to any animal left in our care for boarding.

- Pets To Go agrees to feed, water and clean any animal left in our care. Should your pet require any special foods, the owner of the animal must provide them.
- Pets To Go will, if deemed necessary, take any animal requiring medical attention to Laguna Creek Veterinary Hospital. The owner of the animal will be held responsible for any veterinary bills incurred.
- Any animal left in our care 30 days beyond agreed boarding time would become property of Pets To Go.
- The standard fee to board an animal at Pets To Go is $14.00 (fourteen) per day per cage. Pets To Go reserves the right to change standard boarding fees when deemed necessary.
- Pets To Go will visually examine all animals prior to them being left for boarding. Should Pets To Go feel that the animal is unhealthy, Pets To Go reserves the right to not board your animal.
- Boarding fees must be paid in advance.

Boarding your animal for any period of time may prove to be stressful for your pet. Be aware that animals under stress are prone to illness. Consider in home care of your pet prior to leaving it in an unfamiliar environment. Pets To Go will do everything in our power to ensure that your pet has an enjoyable time while in our care.

By signing below, you agree to hold Pets To Go harmless for any injury or illness to your animal. Your signature authorizes Pets To Go to seek veterinary attention for your pet should Pets To Go deem it necessary.

We thank you for trusting your pet to us. We strive to make your pet happy while you are away.

Date: _____

Customer Signature: _____

Pets To Go: _____